

Warrington College of Business Administration

The Warrington College of Business Administration's mission is to build a better society by creating influential research and educating tomorrow's business leaders. Under the college of business there are three schools:

- Heavener School of Business
- Fisher School of Accounting
- Hough Graduate School of Business